

The Revolution Won't Be Silent

We won't appease our way to change
No amount of degrees conferred
Can make our demands more polite
Tables turned
On the money collectors
Doves released
Our imagination radicalized

Discomfort will arise
Our faith unbroken
Unshaken, unstopped
Vengeful tears we will cry
The hopes of our fathers
Living well within ourselves

The Revolution won't be silent
Nah, the revolution won't be silent
